Assessing Student Achievement Through Multimedia Presentations. Room: Marshall	There are more ways to assess student learning than pencil and paper evaluations. This workshop will instruct educators on developing assessments and final projects that incorporate multimedia components and visual displays in presentations to clarify knowledge learned (S.L.6.5, LOTE 1 and 2). This project is especially powerful when collaboration occurs: between students of various grades and subjects and between educators. Project ideas, timelines, and funding opportunities will be discussed. Presenters teach grades	Dr. Margaret Leone, Psi Kathryn Inhelder, Psi

	7-12 and University students, but the workshop is also appropriate for younger grades. 0.75 CTLE credit available.
