THE SNUG HARBOR CULTURAL CENTER
AND BOTANICAL GARDEN
1000 RICHMOND TERRACE
STATEN ISLAND. NEW YORK

The Staten Island artist, John A. Noble (1913-1983), said of himself, “I am an industrial printmaker,” but he was more than that; his work consists of lithographs, paintings and drawings which depict both sailing vessels and more modern ships. He did much of his work living on a tugboat which is recreated at the museum, as is a dormitory room of one of the retired sailors who used to live in the building.

LUNCH & MEETING
NEARBY RESTAURANT, “BLUE”

The restaurant, Blue has dramatic views of ship traffic on the Kill van Kull and lower New York harbor, plus an eclectic luncheon menu, which includes potato fries!! Cost will depend on the individual.
