Delta Kappa Gamma Society International
New York State Chart of Named Scholarships

Scholarship named for:	Who should apply	To whom awarded in past few years
A. Evadna Crawford	Preference given to educators working with elementary age children	To an elementary teacher for courses to gain certification in ESL
Phoebe Mersereau Eldredge (Offered whenever interest accumulates to $500)	Current teachers and retirees	Continuing education - Road Scholar program
Georgia I. Hartmann	An active teacher
Jeanette Johnson (Offered whenever interest accumulates to $500)	Current teachers and retirees	Continuing education to update skills; maintain certification; training in a new level in field of specialty
Edna B. Mack	For members who seek advanced education or specialized development to improve or expand her ability to perform distinctive service in the education field. Does not require the recipient to be in a degree program, meant to provide broad and innovative opportunities for professional advancement.	PhD candidate; courses in a new field of study
Jennie F. Snapp (Offered whenever interest accumulates to $500)	Current teachers and retirees	Research in preparation for writing a book
Ruth E. Williams	Active teacher for professional development (i.e. developing a history of the local community, pursuing national Board Certification, or a higher degree)	PhD candidate
Iona M. Keeler	Early Career Educators
Pi State Scholarship	Current teachers and retirees	PhD candidate; member finishing Educational Leadership program; to attend a conference on the Suzuki Method of string instruction; National Migrant Education Conference; research and write a Dance History Text and present research to National Dance Ed. Organization Conference
Gladys L. Mersereau Scholarship	Graduate studies	