"Invigorating Pi State"

Dr. Joyce Tang Pi State President 2013 - 2015

Register NOW for the Spring Executive Board Meeting and Seminar in Syracuse!

Our 61 Chapters are Pi State's foundation. One of the goals in my biennium is to grow the membership. However, demographic changes around the world have necessitated International's membership revitalization efforts for struggling Chapters and State Organizations such as Rhode Island, Denmark and Prince Edward Island.

How does the New York State Organization enjoy stability and change at the same time? Current and prospective leaders of Pi State Chapters should know that the Executive Committee along with the Membership and Expansion Committee are always ready and willing to assist Chapters, including but not limited to supporting and encouraging members to take on leadership roles. Additionally, to take stock of Pi State's accomplishments in recent decades and to chart the direction of this 77-year institution for women educators in New York, we plan to conduct the first Strategic Action Planning. I anticipate your participation and involvement in this important endeavor for Pi State. As a sociologist, I would like to remind everyone that the challenges that a Chapter faces are usually not unique to one Chapter and that chances are other Chapters have similar issues. REMEMBER: I am just a phone call away for your questions and concerns.

During the last few months, I had the pleasure of working with the Executive Committee and various State Committees to organize the Spring Executive Board Meeting/Seminar. Jennifer Lee-Alden and the Educational Excellence Committee have worked hard to put together a series of eight (8) workshops on a wide ranging topics: the need and the response to support early career educators (Marcia Swiatek), strengthening a Chapter (Terri Palmieri), conducting an effective and efficient Chapter meeting (Karen Crumley), New York State Common Core (Dr. Jane Hogan et al.), Women on the Civil War (Joyce Hovey), expanding and invigorating Chapter communication (Mary-Martha Harvey), writing your life stories (Melanie McDonald), and U.S. Forum (Barbara Bostwick-Quinn). Rho Chapter's Lisa Huyck has graciously accepted the appointment to be the Registrar. I look forward to seeing many of you (and your guests) in Syracuse. Don't forget to submit your Nominations or Applications for Pi State Scholarships, Grants, and Awards by March 1. Early registration for the Meeting/Seminar is encouraged.

Since September, Jane Tanner, Beryl Szwed, Mary-Martha Harvey, Rosemary Van Wart, Joan Slagle and Jeanne Schenk attended Chapter and the (joint Chapter) meetings of Alpha Iota, Gamma Epsilon, (Beta Nu and Beta Gamma), Alpha Psi, (Alpha Sigma and Beta Epsilon), and Beta Alpha and the Conferences in the South Central, North Central and Southeastern areas as Official State Representatives. Their Visitation Reports were useful for our Strategic Action Planning.

To connect and communicate with (prospective) members, I have reached out to a wide audience. Marlene Carolselli, Ed.D., who now lives in Pittsford, is a New York State Honorary Member. The author of more than 60 books, Dr. Carolselli is an international keynote speaker and corporate trainer for Fortune 100 companies, government agencies, educational institutions and professional organizations. In one of her business books, Leading Honorably: 50 Tips for Effecting Positive Change, Marlene reminds us that "the best definition of a leader may be a person who effects positive change . . . You know many honorable people, but they are not all leaders. You also know or know about many so-called 'leaders.' They are not all honorable leaders . . . Another element in the leadership equation comes from an ancient Scottish proverb . . . that the person who wants to be a leader must also be a bridge." Read an excerpt of her article, "Failing Schools: An Effect with Many Causes," in winter issue of Pi Lights on page three and in the upcoming issue of Youth on Race.

When giving a keynote address, "The Glass Ceiling and Diversity in Science and Engineering," at an Annual Conference held at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in November, I shared my valuable experiences of working with a group of competent and dedicated Pi Staters to promote professional and personal growth of women educators and excellence in education. In addition to presenting my research on "glass ceiling" and diversity in high-status, high-paying professions, I used this occasion to talk about the mission of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, founded by Dr. Annie Webb Blanton, to the young audience in the Greater Boston Area. I too hope you will use professional and social occasions to put DKG/Pi State on the map.

Failing Schools: An Effect with Many Causes

By Dr. Marlene Caroselli

DKG New York State Honorary Member

There are only 8.7 miles separating the school system in Pittsford, New York, from the school system in Rochester, New York. But, in terms of scholastic separation, the two systems are 429 placements apart: According to the rankings of New York State school districts for 2013, Pittsford placed first among the 48 counties that constitute Upstate New York. Rochester was ranked last on the list. The city school superintendent, Bolgan Vargas, describes the graduation rate of 43% (and the college-readiness figure of 10%) as "painfully unacceptable."

Lest you are tempted to think that a wealthy suburb—and Pittsford surely is that—is spending more money per pupil than the city can spend, you may be surprised to learn the per-student expenditure in Rochester is $21,000 - almost twice the national average. Pittsford spends considerably less, $18,974 for the 2012-13 school year. The causes leading to failing schools are numerous and entwined.

Asked to speculate about some of them, Dr. Andrew J. DuBrin, Professor Emeritus at the Saunders College of Business at the Rochester Institute of Technology, candidly shared his thoughts. "The only hope," he maintains, "is for business to work collaboratively with schools to help students change their social attitudes in a positive direction. Examples of negative social attitudes held by many students include the belief that (a) physically and verbally abusing others is a valuable form of social interaction, (b) using preposterously poor grammar and articulation makes you part of the in-crowd, (c) revenge should be taken against successful people, and (d) only jerks want to acquire knowledge that will help them advance their career."

He adds, "Unless these students develop better interpersonal skills and a positive work ethic, they will never be hired by a sensible hiring manager or HR specialist. My take is that many business firms in the Rochester area want to help inner-city students, but they also need to hire young people who will help the enterprise succeed."

Asked about portable leadership lessons . . . DuBrin offers these insights. "A key leadership principle to is attempt to work with others to help them develop values that will aid them in the long run. Another key principle would be to listen with empathy to students, and try to understand why so many resist learning and engage in self-defeating behavior to the point that they are destined to career failure and consequently unrewarding personal lives."

The U.S. Forum Update

The U.S. Forum focuses on legislative action that affects educators, women and children. Today with the recent sequester along with actions in New York, it is imperative that we recognize the power our organization has as a group.

New York State Teacher Evaluations

School Districts across the State are implementing Common Core and evaluations. The 2012 New York State Teacher of the Year, Kathleen Ferguson, recently reported to a State Senate Hearing that she was not able to get a "highly effective" rating on her teacher evaluation. Kathleen joins teachers across the State who address the dilemma of teaching to the test and changing inclusion class assignments. The system needs time to be improved and calibrated so that there will actually be validity in comparing schools and districts across the state.

Currently Commissioner Dr. John B. King Jr. is discussing this situation with the Board of Regents. Join your fellow sisters in e-mailing or writing him at NYSED, 89 Washington Ave., Albany, NY 12234. You can visit www.EngageNY.org or follow King on Twitter @JohnKingNYSED. The addresses and e-mails for the Board of Regents can be found at www.NYSED.gov or you can address them as a body at RegentsOffice@mail.nysed.gov. Their mailing address is New York State Education Department, Board of Regents, Room 110 EB, Albany 12234. Merry H. Tisch is the current Chancellor. Never underestimate the power of our group.

New York State Legislature Actions

Interested in legislation, you can contact the New York Department of State at www.dos.ny.gov for information on alerts, legislature and State agencies. There are many resources for active and retired educators. New York members are invited to join us as we meet with Senator Kirsten Gillibrand. Join us on Saturday, April 26, 2014 at the Pi State Executive Board Meeting & Seminar for the workshop, "U.S. Forum: What We Can Do for You." Gain some ideas on topics for future meetings & share your expertise.

On October 19 the Southeast Area Council Conference was held at Molloy College in the Public Square Multi-Purpose room with special thanks to Dr. Andrea Honigsfield, Alpha Pi. Emilie Stris, Alpha Phi, and Beth Borzone, Alpha Phi, were Co-Chairs and provided attendees with a most enjoyable "Taste of Africa."

Beth Borzone was able to invite Janet Karim, First Secretary of the Malawi Mission to the UN, as the guest speaker. She was a dynamic speaker who gave us insight into the women's role in the progress of the Malawi Republic. Grace Murphy, Alpha Beta, the Southeastern Council Chair and DKG's UN-NGO Representative, explained Delta Kappa Gamma's role in fostering women's education in many African countries, including the health and sanitation initiatives to make it possible for girls to attend school.

After a delicious lunch, benefit drawings, sales of Fair-Trade non-profit items and the recognition of new members by Pi State Immediate Past President Jeanne Schenk and the current Pi State President Dr. Joyce Tang, sisters were entertained by the Bishop Loughlin Memorial High School African Dance Troop. The Conference ended with our holding hands and singing the Delta Kappa Gamma Song, led by Dr. Andrea Morris, Alpha Beta. We went home with African Heavenly Chocolate, Rwandan coffee beans and a richer understanding of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society's work in helping women achieve education on the African continent.

The North Central Area Council Conference ... October 19 ... "Engaging in a Vision for Equal Rights"

"There is a word sweeter than mother, home or heaven - that word is liberty." - Matilda Joslyn Gage 1826-1898

On October 19 seventy-two DKG members attended the North Central Area Conference. With a theme of "Engaging in a Vision for Equal Rights," members were able to visit the Matilda Joslyn Gage Center and the United Church of Fayetteville and listen to tales of the Underground Railroad in Central New York.

The amazing connection between Matilda Joslyn Gage, the National Woman's Suffrage Association leader who offered her home as a station on the Underground Railroad, and the Church that sheltered runaways provided the background for an informative and entertaining day. Highlights included a tour of the Gage Center, story teller Vanessa Johnson spinning stories of the Underground Railroad, a historical overview of the United Church, and High Tea Luncheon. During the catered luncheon, nationally recognized lecturer and author, Dr. Sally Roesch Wagner, explained her studies and the formation of the Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation. State Representative, Past President Joan Slagle, shared an official greeting.

Chair Risë Messmer and representatives from Alpha Chi, Alpha Iota, Beta, Beta Kappa, Chi, Nu and Sigma did an excellent job of creating an informative, interesting day. Other Pi State Guests included First Vice President Deborah Bedard, Second Vice President Karen Butters and Past Pi State Presidents Jane Tanner and Karen Crumley.

Members left the conference engaged and invigorated.

On October 5 the South Central Area Conference was held at the Glen Club at the Watkins Glen International Race Track. Dr. Dawn Hamlin, Assistant Professor at SUNY Oneonta of Educational Psychology, Counseling and Special Education and Past-President of the NYS Council for Exceptional Children, was the guest speaker. She explored the theme, "Autism Spectrum Disorders: Are We Ready? REALLY Ready?" and challenged Conference participants to be prepared for these students in numerous ways. Her real life examples and research models provided thought-provoking material for discussion as well as references for further study.

Conference Chair Lisa Sackett, Rho, Sue Coolican, Alpha Rho, Doris Knowles, Gamma Zeta, and Jan Przybylski, Alpha Rho, organized an informative and enjoyable Conference. The Glen Club Chef provided an excellent lunch. Participants were also entertained by the practice laps of several race cars.

The East Central Area Council Conference ... October 23 ... "Women's Night Out"

The biennial meeting of the East Central Area Council on October 23 brought 90 women educators to Club 86 in Geneva with a total of nearly 120 attending, including guests. The four Chapters comprising ECAC are Alpha Tau, Beta Delta, Beta Theta and Omega and the Council Chair is Laura Janas, Alpha Tau. DKG sisters of these Chapters work in schools in the counties of Ontario, Seneca, Wayne and Yates. The theme of this year's meeting was "Women's Night Out" and began with generous assortment of hors d'oeuvres, followed by a bounteous buffet dinner by Club 86.

A variety of vendors were featured around the perimeter of the banquet room, giving those attending an opportunity to familiarize themselves with a wide array of items available in the Finger Lakes area. There were several jewelry vendors with many unique selections of fine jewelry as well as vendors with specialty clothing lines, bags and purses. Home décor was featured through basketry, home portraits and accessories for walls and tables, both year round and for the holidays. Culinary interests were tempted by the newest cooking tools and storage options, seasoning mixes, chocolate gift items and maple products. DKG sisters could find tools and kits to explore one's own creative interests as well as learn about new home cleaning and personal care products.

"Women's Night Out" provided a chance for sisters from the four Chapters of the East Central Area Council to become acquainted with one another during this evening while enjoying the opportunity to just browse the wares of the diverse vendors or to make purchases, both for personal use or to get a head start on holiday shopping.

Workshops - Pi State Seminar April 25-26, 2014

Workshop Session I Friday, April 25th 7:00 - 7:45pm

A. Supporting Early Career Educators: The Need and the Response

In an era of pervasive standardized testing, new and controversial national curriculum standards, emerging technologies and social media, and high stakes teacher evaluations, established teachers face challenges many have not seen before. For novice teachers – those in the first three years of their careers – the challenge might be even greater, especially since they are also addressing the basic demands of transitioning to teaching itself. This panel will describe the challenges that novice teachers face and how those challenges might be addressed. The panelists include a new teacher, an established teacher, a school principal and a university teacher educator. Opening statements by the panelists will be followed by discussions and the audience will be invited to share their comments and pose questions.

Dr. Gerald Mager, Syracuse University, et al

B. Membership and Expansion: It Doesn't Take Barbells to Strengthen a Chapter

In order to ensure strong, vibrant chapters, the session will enable participants to pinpoint Chapter strengths and weaknesses and learn to build on the strengths. The session will help participants in Chapters of all sizes and locations to move their Chapters forward.

C. How to Conduct a Chapter (Business) Meeting Effectively and Efficiently

New Chapter Presidents: Do you know the standard order of an agenda? How to figure out quorums, majority and 2/3 votes? Do you know the procedure for proposing, debating, and voting on a motion? If you answer 'no' to any of the above, this workshop is for you!

Karen Crumley, Tau; Ellie Robinson, Gamma Delta; Jean Wagner, Alpha Chi

Workshop Session II Friday, April 25th 8:15 - 9:00pm

A. The Impact of the Common Core: Effects on What and How You Are Teaching Students to Prepare Them for the Revised Learning Standards

An interdisciplinary panel of Elementary and Secondary Teachers will share strategies and changes they have made in response to the new assessments.

Dr. Jane Hogan, Alpha Xi; Debbie Bedard, Alpha Epsilon; et al

B. Women of the Civil War

One little known fact about the Civil War is that hundreds of women disguised themselves as men, then volunteered to fight on both sides. Come hear about why they joined, what happened to them during and after the war, and how this paved the way for women's rights today.

Joyce Thompson-Hovey, Gamma Gamma

C. Chapter Communication: Expand and Invigorate

In this hands-on workshop, participants will examine key elements of their own Chapter communication and explore ways it can be expanded and INVIGORATED!

Mary-Martha Harvey, Omega

Workshop Session III Saturday, April 26th 11:45am - 12:30pm

A. Moments of Being: Writing Your Life Stories

This workshop is a low-key, no pressure, anybody can do it (and I mean that) opportunity to start writing your life. We all have moments of being to explore and meaningful experiences to share. Come and get a taste of memoir writing in a relaxed atmosphere. Come explore your creative side.

Melanie McDonald, Beta Omega

B. What is the U.S. Forum and Why Is It Important to Pi State Members?

This workshop will present information about the U.S. Forum including the latest update from our March 2014 Legislative Conference in Washington, D. C. We will explore how you and your Chapter can be involved as well as DKG's role in Legislative and Educational Policy. Learn what the U.S. Forum can offer to individuals, Chapters and Pi State!

Membership & Expansion

Delta Kappa Gamma International has asked Chapters to complete a Chapter Profile Survey that can be accessed on the International DKG website (https://www.dkg.org/category/committee/membership). Some of the compiled results from previous surveys are invaluable for Chapters to use in planning for upcoming program years.
